COUNTRY HOLIDAY PARK

Nestled amongst the rolling green hills of Powys, Rockbridge Country Holiday Park is the perfect escape from the fast-paced modern world.

A mile outside the border town of Presteigne and only 30 minutes from the market towns of Ludlow and Leominster, the park is a perfect base to explore the borderland where England meets Wales.

Sitting inside Wales' first Dark Skies Community, you can view the constellations from the park's observatory. Walks near Rockbridge include parts of the 177-mile long Offa's Dyke Path. The banks of the River Lugg, which borders the park, is a haven for wildlife on the ground whilst Red Kites swoop and call overhead - the park is a great place to view them.
